LOOKING UNTO JESUS – IV

Praise the Lord. Praise the King of kings. Praise the Lord of Lord. Praise the One who is in charge of heaven and earth. Praise Him who changes time and seasons. It is always good to give thanks and praises to the Lord. Praise Him who watches over you and never blink an eye. Magnify His name. Exalt His name. Jesus Christ is worthy to be praised.

“Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.” (Hebrews 12:2). Professionals in every walk of life are encouraged to have mentors. It is not only professionals that have mentors. Everyone can have a mentor. A mentor is “a person who gives a younger one or less experienced person help and advice over a period of time, especially at work or school.” While it is not bad having a mentor, it is however important that you let Jesus Christ be your ultimate mentor. He is the mentor of mentors. In Mathew 14:28-30, Peter walked on water but when he lost his focus on Jesus and began to sink, he “cried, saying, Lord, save me.” It is important that he did not cry unto his fellow disciples in the boat who after all would be great swimmers to save him. Are you in a situation that needs the Lord intervention, cry unto Him for help now and He will surely come to your rescue.

As a child of the Most High, Jesus Christ is the author and finisher of your faith. Are you in the habit of asking Jesus Christ for advice or to teach you His ways? Luke 11:1 says “And it came to pass, that, as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples.” You need to cultivate ask the habit of conversing with God and to ask Him about anything and even things that appear to be mundane. He is the Good Shepherd. He will never lead you astray. You need to continuously work on your relationship to the Lord. You need to be sensitive to His Spirit so that when He talks back to you, you are able to hear Him clearly. “Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.” (Revelation 3:20). Ask God today to take you to higher grounds in your relationship with Him. Ask Him to help you to be more with intimate with Him. Ask Him to help you recognise His voice when He speaks to you. Let Jesus Christ be your only focus in every area of life. He is the only One that cannot fail. Let Him be everything to you and to the glory of His name.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life.

- JOHN 5:24 KJV
