WORD FOR THE WEEK

HE IS EVER WATCHFUL

We give thanks and praises to our Heavenly Father. Our Heavenly Father is good. He is merciful. He is caring. He loves you and all his children unconditionally. He protects His children. He provides for His children. He defends His children. He has all the wherewithal to take care of His children. What a loving, caring and truthful Father He is! Bless His holy name. Praise Him. Magnify His holy name. It is a wonderful thing to praise the Lord. He deserves all your praise.

Our Heavenly Father is ever watchful over His children. “Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.” (Psalm 121:4). He does not sleep. He does not go on vacation. He never has a bad day. It is not difficult for Him to watch over you. He is the Omnipotent God. He is the Omniscient God. He knows everything. He is Omnipresent God. He is ever present. “For the eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to shew himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward him.” (2 Chronicles 9:16). What a wonderful Father we have in our Savior and Lord Jesus Christ!

Let your heart be perfect towards the Lord. Let your heart be receptive to His Word. Let your heart be receptive to His statutes. Let your heart be receptive to his commandments. Ask Him to help your heart be perfect towards Him. With the information overload in today’s world, you need to ask God for help so that the cares of this world will not crowd Him out of your heart. Let the Lord occupy the first place in your heart. Let your heart be free from bitterness. Let our heart be free from wickedness. Let your heart be free from hatred. Let your heart be free from un-forgiveness.

There is a great reward when your heart is perfect towards the Lord. There is a great benefit to reap with your heart being perfect towards the Lord. He will defend you. He will not only defend you, He will show Himself strong on your behalf. Showing Himself strong on your behalf is all about going on the offensive for you and against everything that wants to prevent His glory from shining forth in your life. He wants to show Himself strong on your behalf. Don’t be the obstacle standing in His way to defend you.

Father give me the grace to make my heart perfect towards you all the days of my life and all glory will be yours.

Have a blessed week in Jesus name!
